

Dorothy Hawks, Robert Laverty Wed Tomorrow

Dorothy Hawks, Billings, Montana, and Robert Laverty, Santa Cruz, will become man and wife tomorrow evening at the Salvation Army hall, 11 Washington street.

The wedding service will begin at 8 p. m. with Captain Lewis McAllan officiating. Captain Henry Lorenzen, San Francisco, will play the wedding march and Mrs. Lorenzen, who a few years ago was in charge of the army's work in Santa Cruz, will be the soloist.

Captain Juanita Roff, Eureka, will act as maid of honor and Captain Phil Laverty, Butte, Montana, a brother of the bridegroom, will act as his best man.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hawks, Montana, and Mr. Laverty is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laverty, 18 Keystone street. The bride and bridegroom are both outstanding young people in the Salvation Army circles and the wedding will be open to the public.
