

Ridenour-Beebe Wedding a Pretty Church Ceremony

A simple appointed ceremony at the Howard Street Presbyterian church in San Francisco Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock united in marriage Miss Zella Beebe and Dr. Harris E. Ridenour in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends. The Reverend J. W. Lundy formerly of Stockton was the officiant, and the attendants were Miss Helen Beebe, a sister of the bride and Irving Ridenour, a brother of the bridegroom.

Woodwardia ferns and other greenery and jonquills formed the floral setting at the church. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Hazel Ridenour, a sister of the bridegroom, sang "Because" (D'Hardelot.) The bridal party took their places to the accompaniment of the Lohengrin wedding march played by the church organist. The bride was escorted to the altar by an uncle, Charles Brown of Gridley.

The bride was attired in white crepe heavily embroidered, and carried bride's roses. Her bridesmaid wore apricot colored taffeta and carried bridesmaid roses.

A wedding supper for the immediate relatives and a few of the most intimate friends of the couple was served at the home of an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas on Stanyon street. Miss Ridenour's sweet soprano voice was heard also at the home in "Dawn" and "At Dawning" (Cadman.) Dr. and Mrs. Ridenour are spending their honeymoon at Highlands Inn, Carmel. They will make their home at an apartment which awaits them on Grove street.

Since graduating from U. C. Dr. Ridenour has established himself in the practice of dentistry in the metropolis. His bride is a charming girl who has been much admired by the friends of the Ridenour family on her frequent visits here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ridenour, the parents of the bridegroom. Miss Hazel Ridenour, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Del Monte and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Woodhull were members of the Ridenour family who attended the ceremony.
