Obituary.

Died, Tuesday, April 11, 1893, of heart disease, Wm. Marriott Esq., aged 68 years. The funeral was from the house, the service being conducted by Rev. B. F. Pearson, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this place.

Mr. Wm. Marriott was born in Scopwick, Lincolnshire, England, on Aug. 28, 1825, and was therefore in his 68 year. He came to America in 1853 and settled in Peoria county, Ill. There he remained until on the decease of his wife about 15 months ago he came to spend the remainder of his days with his only surviving son Mr. John T. Marriott. Mr. Marriott was in poor health when he came to Wakefield and was immediately placed under the care of the family physician Dr. Winship. For several months past there has been a general decay of the vital powers until on Tuesday afternoon he quietly and peacefully fell asleep.

The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church of Brimfield, Ill., for more than a quarter of a century and retained his connection with that church to the end.—Wakefield Republican.

THE SONG OF THE "No. 9."

My dress is of fine polished oak,
As rich as the finest fur cloak,
And for handsome design
You just should see mine—
No. 9, No. 9

I'm beloved by the poor and the rich,
For both I impartially stitch;
In the cabin I shine,
In the mansion I'm fine—
No. 9, No. 9

I never get surly nor tired,
With seal I always am fired;
To hard work I incline,
For rest I ne'er pine—
No. 9, No. 9

I am easily purchased by all,
With instalments that monthly do fall;
And when I am thine,
Then life is benign—
No. 9, No. 9

To the Paris Exposition I went,
Upon getting the Grand Prize intent;
I left all behind,
The Grand Prize was mine—
No. 9, No. 9

At the Universal Exposition of 1889, at Paris, France, the best sewing machines of the world, including those of America, were in competition. They were passed upon by a jury composed of the best foreign mechanical experts, two of whom were the leading sewing machine manufacturers of France. This jury, after exhaustive examination and tests, adjudged that the Wheeler & Wilson machines were the best of all, and awarded that company the highest prize offered—the GRAND PRIZE—giving other companies only gold, silver and bronze medals.

The French government, as a further recognition of superiority, decorated Mr. Nathaniel Wheeler, president of the company, with the Cross of the Legion of Honor—the most prized honor of France.

The No. 9, for family use, and the No. 12, for manufacturing uses, are the best in the world to-day.

And now, when you want a sewing machine, if you do not get the best it will be your own fault. Ask your sewing machine dealer for the No. 9 Wheeler & Wilson machine. If he doesn't keep them, write to us for descriptive catalogue and terms. Agents wanted in all unoccupied territory.
